

ALLIANCE MINUTES: APRIL 10, 2008

NEXT MEETING IS MAY 22, 9:15AM AT MARLBORO RECREATION BUILDING

ATTENDEES: Nancy Horowitz, Nancy Geist, Lt. Doug Van Note, Earl Tankard, Bonnie Sue Rosenwald, Dillies Pilevsky, Randi Marder, Peggy Gamza, Sue Levine, Melody Midoneck, Roxanne Napolitano, Debbie Adelman, Elena Dworkowitz, John Saffioti, Joanmarie Penney, Nancy Asher-Shultz, Pat Nielwocki, Shoshana Baskind, and Dr. Abbott

Nancy Horowitz called the meeting to order at 9:25AM and read the Sunshine Law

CORRESPONDENCE:

- Thank you from Larry Rosen

ALLIANCE UPDATE:

- “What’s Missing from Your Medicine Cabinet...”-127 attended – positive feedback – everyone was thanked for their help in putting this together, especially Lt. Doug Van Note for all that he did. Thanked FRHSD and Mr. North for being so supportive. The workshop fulfilled the mandate as to what the Alliance is all about.
- Project Graduation for 2009 – if interested the Alliance will work with the PTSO
- 6th Grade Teen Night- March 14th -218 attended 7th Grade Teen Night –April 4th – 131 attended
- Middle Schools P2P- outreaches on going - REBEL2 outreaches being presented to all 5th graders
- Billboard on Rt. 79 has received positive feedback
- Workshops - April 2nd – Whose Life is it Anyway? – 18 attendees – positive feedback was received
May 7th – Youth Who Struggle With Social Skills -7:30PM –Marlboro Recreation Building
- April 27th -Kids Day-we will have a table- give aways for children and informational handouts
- Marlboro Police and Alliance are co-sponsoring a Blood Drive on Saturday, May 3rd
- Discussion regarding the dangers of “Blow Energy” drink and its’ marketing

HIGH SCHOOL UPDATE:

- FRHS budget for Marlboro Township decreased .08cents

ELEMENTARY UPDATE:

- Testing, testing, and more testing
- Dr. Abbott spoke briefly about the budget, new text books and additional special education teachers.
- Tulips planted Red Ribbon week are blooming at both middle schools—April is Alcohol Awareness month.

POLICE UPDATE:

- Kid’s discovery Day – Bike Rodeo and more!

PIO UPDATE:

- 100 day report was well attended – reviewed accomplishments. Will continue to try and preserve open space.
- April 8th a Business Luncheon was held with many local businesses attending.
- Actively pursuing businesses to come to Marlboro – more rateables are needed.
- Mayor’s Ball-October 8th-proceeds to purchase defibrillators for all Recreation fields. (State Law)
- May 17th Beautification Day

180 TURNING LIVES AROUND:

- Amanda’s Easel will be state wide

FUND RAISING:

- $402.43 – 1ST quarter

Meeting was adjourned at 11:10AM

